PLTI INITIATIVE STRUCTURE

THE 4 STAGES OF DEVELOPMENT

What follows shows the four-stage developmental process used by local leaders across the country who have successfully started and sustained PLTI initiatives to change the civic dialogue in their communities.

PARENT LEADERSHIP LAUNCH

YEAR 1

A Civic Design Team organizes and launches the initiative.

• Train parent leaders: 20

2

FAMILY CIVICS ON THE RISE

YEARS 2-3

Initiate Civic Change projects.

- Train parent leaders: 20-40
- Establish alumni network: 40+

3 A GROWING CONSTITUENCY OF PARENTS

YEARS 4-5

Integrate alumni into organizations & community change initiatives.

- Train parent leaders: 30-40
- Two-generation leadership

SUSTAINING CHANGE IN THE COMMUNITY

YEARS 5+

Community "go-to" for civic dialog and parent-driven approaches.

• Thriving alumni network: 100+

Participant Recruitment

Who are we missing in the (CDT)?

What are some strategies to recruit participants?

How can your agency help with that?

WHAT DO YOU CONSIDER TO BE THE BIGGEST CHALLENGE RIGHT NOW IN YOUR PROGRAM THAT YOU COULD USE HELP FROM THE HVCC?

- Hiring qualified staff
- Turnover/Being short staffed
- Concern for the MH of staff
- Enrolling families in services (outreach)
- Retaining families in services
- Not enough services to meet the needs of the families
- Coordinating services with other community partners (lack of follow-through)
- Impact from COVID
- Other- Put it in the chat!

IF THE FUNDING WAS AVAILABLE, WHERE WOULD YOU INVEST FUNDING (OR INCREASE FUNDING) IN YOUR PROGRAM TO IMPROVE OR EXPAND SERVICES FOR FAMILIES?

WE'VE COME A LONG WAY...

WHAT HAVE WE ACCOMPLISHED?

- Created a Vision
- Brought parents to the table
- Developed a Decision Tree
- Created a Universal Referral Form
- Developed a name and logo
- Learned about new resources for families
- Offered training to staff
- Executed an MOU between 32 agencies!

WHAT WE STILL NEED TO DO...

- Implement referrals based on Decision Tree:
 - Training Video
 - Utilize Universal Referral Form
 - Launch Sac Family Connect Website
 - Training on making referrals
 - Promote Sac Family Connect
- Continue to build relationships (Meet & Greets, Discussion topics)
- Data Sharing!

NEXT MEETING

- "Unveil" Training Video
- Develop outreach plan for Sac Family Connect
- Discussion Topics
 - Challenges
 - Strategic Planning
- Recruiting parents for PLTI
- Meet & Greets
